Transpiring in "The Land of Flowers."
Things "Boiled Down" to Suit the Busy Reader—Items of Interest to All Classes.

Orlando business men now use 15 electric motors.

The roller skating craze has swooped down upon Jacksonville.

The Lake City postoffice will soon be advanced to the second class.

The Green Cove Springs street car has ceased to run after many years.

The Jacksonville city council has passed the "Jim Crow" street car bill.

Key West will call a new election to settle the disputed police justice contest.

Sweet potatoes in the vicinity of Beulah, Escambia county, are rotting badly.

The Dade county court has such a rush of business on hand that night sessions are being held.

The spur line of the Seaboard Air Line to connect Bradentown with Manatee is to be built at once.

Hon. Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury, Washington, D.C., will be invited to open the State Fair at Tampa.

Camp Broward is the name selected for the encampment of the First Regiment, Florida State Troops, at Lake City.

West Palm Beach is to have a fountain in the city park, to be built by popular subscription. It will cost $1,000.

The Circulo Cubans of Tampa, an organization of Cubans for social intercourse, will erect a fine building in that city.

Orlando is in favor of putting up a school building that will meet future as well as present requirements. And it is a good idea.

The Methodist church at Jasper will have $1,200 in improvements, which will add much to its inside and outside appearance.

Octavio Fernandez was accidentally shot by a companion while out hunting near Tampa, and he died soon after the accident.

The people of Levy county are determined on having a new court house, and committees have been appointed to investigate the matter.

Lake Butler would remind the people that they are still on the map and coming. Avery Powell, editor of The Star, is doing a heap to help the work along.

The Jacksonville people are gaining in goodness. The city council will not allow a pool or billiard room to be conducted within 300 yards of a church or school.

A. Fowler & Son are going to fence their 21,000 acres of land south of Bronson and put 2,000 head of blooded cattle on it. This will be a paying investment.

Carload of palms were shipped from Miami to St. Augustine to be used at the Ponce de Leon in decorating for the reception of President Roosevelt.

There is going to be a good yield of oranges this winter in the Manatee county, and most of the trees show excellent conditions of the fruit—big in size and bright in color.

Master Hilde of Hastings has been arrested at Hastings for beating another negro named Edwards with a club over the head so that he will be killed. Hilde is a bad nigger.

The city of Pensacola no longer has a street superintendent. The office was declared vacant by the Board of Public Works Wednesday afternoon, as a consequence, Chas. H. Gish, who had the position for some months, is without a job. The resolution declaring the office vacant discharged Mr. Gish.

The Pasco county court is now trying D. B. Keigan for the murder of Hansel Norman, which occurred at Saguna some time ago. Another murder case will follow as soon as this one is ended.

The A. C. L. Railway is putting in six elaborate water softening plants at Ocala, Dunnellon, Port Tampa, Bone Junction and Sanford. These and other improvements the road is making will cost $3,000,000.

Lake City claims a population of 6,500. Now if the enumerator had only waited until this week to take the census he could have easily made it 7,000. The soldier boys are there now, you know—Madison Enterprise.

Judge Jones of Dade county has appointed the wife of Eugene C. Dearborn, who died a few days ago, to succeed him as clerk of the circuit court of that county. She will fill the unexpired term, provided there is no objection.

A noteworthy incident of the revival recently conducted by Rev. C. C. Carroll at Blighton was the accession of the venerable Mrs. Sparkman to that church. She transferred her letter from the Fellowship Church. Mrs. Sparkman is a hundred and nine years old. She was four years old when George Washington died.—Ocala Star.

By a unanimous vote the Jacksonville City Council has passed an ordinance prohibiting the discharging of city employees because of their trading or not trading with any particular person or firm. This was a bill introduced by Councilman Ross, as a result of the charges made against Superintendent Drysdale of the street cleaning department.

The Tampa Automobile and Good Roads Club will attend the Bloomingdale camp-meeting in a body Sunday, Oct. 29. All of which goes to show that Solomon was wrong when he said "there is nothing new under the sun," and the contrast between one of the oldest forms of religious services and one of the most modern methods of rapid transit, is striking in the extreme.—Tampa Tribune.

A murder was committed on the 14th of October seven miles south of Macotte. Dover Benford, colored, one of E. E. Edge's hands, was the victim. Captain Laws held an inquest. The evidence showed that one King, a negro laborer for Sharp & Dutton, probably did the killing. Monday additional evidence was found implicating Ed. Brown, also colored, as an accessory, and he was handed over to the sheriff.

Don't be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

County Licenses.

County Tax Collector Dickinson has been busy making out licenses of late and the total issued up to October 20th, 1905, is 274. The amount received for State license is $1,652.50; for county license, $1,008. There has been about half as many take-outs this year as were paid up to the same time last year, and those who do not pay up between this date and November 15 may have to settle with the grand jury.

Adm'r of Estate of John H. Gifford, deceased.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

Pensacola Getting More Hopeful—Science Wins at New Orleans.

Pensacola, Oct. 20.—The fever reports up to noon fail to make out a single case of fever except those of a mother and babe announced last night a few moments after the issuance of the official bulletin. The babe died this morning.

The situation yesterday gave much hope and for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. there were but seven new cases and two deaths.

Total number of cases, 448; total deaths to date, 65.

At New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oct. 20.—For the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. last night there were eight new cases and no deaths reported. This record shows the triumph of science, and the fight made in New Orleans clearly shows the correctness of the mosquito theory.

Today only three cases are reported up to noon, with no deaths.

Total cases to date, 3,456; total number of deaths, 436.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.

First, soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by all druggists.

Imprisoned in Nicaragua.

Philadelphia, Oct. 20.—Frederick W. Murphy, a Philadelphian, is in a Central American prison, unknown to most of his relations and friends here. He was convicted of killing his guide last March and was sentenced to ten years in jail at Managua, Nicaragua. His aged mother and his brother, who live in this city, are said to be anxious as to his state. The state department at Washington has investigated the case thoroughly through Consul Murray, but has not made public the result of its inquiry.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Gover, 101 North Main street, Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stop the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Died at 100 Years of Age.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 20.—Ehler W. Strelow, a resident of this city since 1869, died yesterday aged 100 years and two months. His sight was so good and his nerves so steady that he was able to shave himself until after his hundredth birthday. He was the father of nine children, five of whom are living.

Simpson's Condition Improved.

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 20.—The condition of ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson was improved early today, the patient having slept the greater part of the night. The attending physician, however, held out no hope and says that death is liable to occur at any time.

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures a grippe cough and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Indicted for Forgery.

Muskogee, I. T., Oct. 20.—C. M. Bradley, of this city, a banker and real estate dealer, was indicted by the federal grand jury today charged with forgery and conspiracy growing out of a land deal.

BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP

PERMANENTLY CURES
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS
ASTHMA, SORE THROAT, HOARSENESS
WHOOPING COUGH AND CROUP

DO NOT DELAY

Until the drain on your system produces permanent disability. The human breathing machinery is a wonderful system of tubes and cells. To have good health it must be kept in good order. A GOLD is considered of no importance, yet if it was known by its proper name of "throat inflammation," or "congestion of the lungs," its dangerous character would be appreciated. When a cold makes its appearance use at once Ballard's Horehound Syrup which will speedily overcome it. WHOOPING COUGH AND CROUP Require Prompt Action. SNOW LINIMENT applied to the throat and chest gives wonderful relief, while Ballard's Horehound Syrup will rapidly stop the violent paroxysms of coughing. IT IS THE ONLY COUGH REMEDY THAT WILL POSITIVELY CURE WHOOPING COUGH AND CROUP.

BEST FOR CHILDREN

Mrs. Mend Adams, Goldthwaite, Tex., writes:—"I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup and find it the BEST medicine for croup, coughs and colds. My children use it and it is pleasant to take and quickly cures."
